The Addams Family - A New Musical Comedy

Andrew Lippa, Marshall Brickman and Rick Elice

Wednesday Addams and her "normal" boyfriend Lucas arrange a dinner at the Addams' mansion to announce to their families their plans to marry. The idea is jarring to both the families, and when the entire group winds up locked-in overnight, secrets come out and revelations abound.

Directed by Cindy Light

Performance Dates:

Sept. 23, 25, 26

Oct. 2, 3, 2021

(Thurs., Sat. & Sun. & Sat., Sat., Sun)

Produced by special arrangement with Theatrical Rights Worldwide

ELF, THE MUSICAL

Matthew Sklar, Chad Beguelin,
Bob Martin and Thomas Meehan

Buddy, a young orphan, mistakenly crawls into Santa's bag of gifts and is transported to the North Pole. The would-be elf is raised, unaware that he is actually a human until his enormous size and poor toy-making abilities cause him to face the truth. With Santa's permission, Buddy embarks on a journey to New York City to find his birth father and discover his true identity.

Directed by Amanda Zucker

Performance Dates:

December 3-5, 10-12, 2021

Produced by special arrangement with Music Theatre International

THE BOYS NEXT DOOR

Tom Griffin

Four mentally handicapped men live under the supervision of an earnest, but increasingly "burned out" social worker. Scenes from their daily lives, where "little things" sometimes become momentous (and often very funny), mix with moments of great poignancy when we are reminded that the handicapped, like the rest of us, want only to love and laugh and find some meaning and purpose in life.

Directed by Marina Bayless

Performance Dates:

March 11-13 & 18-20, 2022

Produced by special arrangement with Dramatists Play Service, Inc.

MONTY PYTHON'S SPAMALOT

Eric Idle and John DuPrez

Lovingly ripped off from the classic film comedy Monty Python and the Holy Grail, SPAMALOT retells the legend of King Arthur and his Knights of the Round Table. Featuring show girls, cows, killer rabbits, and French people. Winner of three Tony® Awards, including Best Musical, the outrageous, uproarious, and gloriously entertaining story of King Arthur will delight audiences as they search for the Holy Grail.

Directed by Cheri Laughbaum

Performance Dates:

June 2022

Produced by special arrangement with Theatrical Rights Worldwide
